

UTAH PEACE OFFICER STANDARDS & TRAINING

ANNUAL IN-SERVICE AND REGIONAL TRAINING CATALOG 2003 – 2004

June 1, 2003

Dear Law Enforcement Professional:

The Utah Peace Officer Standards and Training Academy is pleased to offer the annual In-Service training catalog for the 2003-2004 training year.

This catalog provides a schedule of training courses offered here at P.O.S.T and throughout the nine P.O.S.T approved training regions.

The content of the In-Service training program is based on suggestions and feedback received from the Law Enforcement community. If there are specific courses of interest that are not included in our In-Service training program, please contact the In-Service Training Bureau.

Sincerely,

Sidney P. Groll

NOTICE

The information in this catalog is as current and correct as possible. For your convenience we have put this catalog information on the internet. For the most up-to-date information, please check the class information in the catalog, located on the internet at www.post.utah.gov

The information contained here will be up dated periodically. You may find new classes, class locations, and needed changes. We strive to give you the best possible service available. Help us out by letting others know of the internet site location.

Enrollment and participation in the courses contained in this catalog are open for law enforcement professionals who are currently employed by a public safety agency. Unauthorized use or reproduction in any form of this catalog, or attendance at POST training courses by non-law enforcement officers is prohibited.

Thanks
In-Service Training Staff

General Information

The courses offered are listed in alphabetical order. Tabs have been inserted for quick access to specific training areas needed.

To register for In-Service training courses, a request must be made through the training officer of each department. The training officer will be the only person allowed to register officers for POST sponsored courses. The training officer should contact POST by fax, or e-mail. The training officer will receive notice by fax, or e-mail prior to the start of the class with information on the class such as location, time, materials needed, and equipment to bring. The training officer is responsible for disseminating this information to their officers.

Everything possible will be done to accommodate department requests for training. If more requests are received than can be accommodated for a particular course, scheduling additional classes within the training year will be considered depending on demand.

Some seminars are limited by contractual agreement others are limited in number simply because of the nature of the seminar or physical space.

Should a cancellation be necessary, please notify the In-Service training office as soon as possible so another officer may fill the vacant slot. If notice has not been received and your officer fails to show up for the class, your department will be subject to a fee charge to cover expenses.

Dorm Facility

Housing for officers attending In-Service training courses is NO LONGER provided at POST.

The departments are responsible for their respective officers lodging needs.

POLICE SERVICE DOG COURSES

*This information is available on the internet at the POST K-9 website located at www.post.ps.state.ut.us
Review this site for any course changes or updates.*

The Police Service Dog training program is designed to accommodate individual department manpower needs. Patrol Dog, Detector Dog, Handler, Instructor, Judge, and K-9 Unit Manager courses are offered.

A Handler may attend a 10 week Patrol Dog or 8-week Detector Dog course in the regular format, or attend any combination of 8-hour modules. A Handler may also attend a course in a sequence of modules if departmental needs do not allow an officer's absence for regular course attendance.

Kennel accommodations for dogs are available on a first-come-first-served basis. Refer to the lodging section of the catalog for officer accommodations.

The cafeteria at our training facility, serves breakfast and lunch meals only. It is privately owned and operated, although located within the facility itself. Meal arrangements must be made directly between the department and the cafeteria. POST is not involved in any way with arranging or providing meals. Please contact the cafeteria at 801-965-4625 to make breakfast and lunch meal arrangements.

No tuition is required for in-state officers. For out-of-state officers the cost is $1,875.00 per course and is payable to POST for the Patrol Dog and Detector Dog courses. Fees are due on or before the first day of the course.

To register for Service Dog courses, please call Sheryl Allums at 801-965-4098 to obtain an application for registration. The application may be mailed to 4525 South 2700 West Salt Lake City, Utah 84119 or faxed (801-965-3866) attention K-9 Training.
